

Indro Student Alum Showcase - Year 12

Caitlin Sargent

Caitlin was 2009 Indro Alumni and Sports Captain, going on to graduate in 2013 with a Bachelor of Physiotherapy from UQ (first class Honours) and UQ Sportswoman of the Year. In 2016 she was a Rio Olympian for Australia in the 4x400m relay (7th place)

Caitlin is now a Physiotherapist at Barefoot Physiotherapy

She has spoken at Indro Sports Awards Night, Graduation and leadership day events.

Robin Twaddle

Robin is a qualified Archaeologist who lives and works in Brisbane as part of the BHP Cultural Heritage team.

He graduated from Indooroopilly State High in 2003, UQ in 2011 with an honours degree in Archaeology, and finally JCU in 2016 with a PhD focusing on Aboriginal Archaeology.

Since then Robin has worked in museums, as a consultant, and finally in the mining industry.

Ellie Wood

Ellie graduated from Indro in 2015, and studied a Bachelor of Arts at the University of Melbourne, majoring in philosophy and creative writing.

Ellie discovered a passion for feminist philosophy and advocacy work, which led to a Master of Social Work.

Ellie is now a Graduate Policy Officer at the Department of Social Services.

Georgia May

Georgia graduated from Indro in 2009 as Academic Captain. She graduated from UQ with a Bachelor of Arts and Law.

Since 2016 she has been a lawyer at a community legal centre. She focuses on human rights, discrimination and employment law.

In 2019 she spent a year in Jakarta volunteering at UNAIDS in their Human Rights and Gender team. She is passionate about social justice issues.

Join Caitlin, Robin, Georgia and Ellie for our inaugural Student-Alum Q&A, who will be answering your questions, Thursday 25 August from 10.15am-11.25am in the School Hall.
